

ICD-10-CM FY2019 Version
Draft
Exposure to Adverse Travel Situations (ATS) (X62-X62)

The following is a new section being considered for inclusion in the FY2019 version of the ICD-10-CM code set. This new section will appear in sequence as follows:

20. External causes of morbidity (V00-Y99)

Accidents (V00-X62)

Other external causes of accidental injury (W00-X62)

...

Accidental exposure to other specified factors (X52-X58)

Exposure to adverse travel situations (ATS) (X62-X62)

Intentional self-harm (X71-X83)

(Notes: Changes above are shown in bold. Sections X59-X61 are skipped at this time due to pending approval of other code section specifications.)

The comment period for this new section will be open from January 1, 2018 through April 30, 2018. All comments should be addressed directly to a member of this section's sponsoring consortium of organizations including, but not limited to, all airlines (domestic only), aircraft manufacturers (and their subcontractors), airline suppliers, etc.

This new section is defined as follows:

20. External Causes of Morbidity (V00-Y99)

Accidents (V00-X62)

Other External Causes of Accidental Injury (W00-X62)

Exposure to adverse travel situations (ATS) (X62-X62)

Includes: Injury and certain other consequences caused by or occurred during contact with, exposure to, or situational exposure to one or more methods and conditions of travel.

Use additional code to specify transmitted infectious disease (A00-B99)

Use additional code to specify type and anatomical location of injuries

Code all causes, sources and information relevant to the injury. Multiple X62-X62 codes may apply

Excludes1: Mental Disorders (F01-F09)

External causes of morbidity elsewhere classified (V00-Y99)

External causes of morbidity directly related to an accident involving the mode of transportation (V00-V99)

Code also:

Exposure to Supernatural Forces (X40-49)

Alien Encounters (X51)

Paranormal Encounters (X60-X60)

Exposure to Political Forces (X61-X61)

X62 Exposure to adverse travel situations (ATS)

Note: although the type and anatomical location of the injury should be coded, a broad category of the situation is coded here for statistical purposes.

Note: any related mental disorders (F01-F99) should also be coded if either caused by or were a significant contributing factor to the injury.
